

Separates water and particulate from diesel fuel.

Backflush capability extends period of time between element replacement

Low restriction reduces wear on fuel pumps and ensures full RPMs

Flexible installation with 2 inlets and 2 outlets

Compatible with B100 bio-diesel

Available with a variety of filter options