Clash Checking

Pars Plant provides you with two clash checking features that alert you to possible interference problems on your drawing The interactive clash checking feature can be activated at any time during the drawing process. When activated, the system alerts you any time there is interference with any 3D object on the drawing With clash checking on the system takes an instant longer to place fittings because the system must search the drawing database for any interfering objects before it place each piece